AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

Pending before the court is the government’s partially consented to Motion to Modify the Scheduling Order Set Forth in the Court’s Order of September 26, 2007, filed November 14, 2007. The government, pursuant to RCFC 6, moves to modify the scheduling order set forth in the court’s order of September 26, 2007, enlarging the discovery and pre-trial deadlines for all parties by a period of fifteen days.

For good cause shown, the motion is GRANTED. Discovery and other pre-trial steps shall proceed in accord with the following schedule:

Event	Prior Deadline	New Deadline
service of initial interrogatories and document disclosure requests	November 20, 2007	December 5, 2007 disclosure of names of expert witnesses	December 28, 2007	January 14, 2008 production of expert reports	February 1, 2008	February 18, 2008 production of rebuttal expert reports	March 11, 2008	March 26, 2008
conclusion of fact discovery	March 28, 2008	April 14, 2008
conclusion of expert discovery	April 30, 2008	May 15, 2008

submission of any motions for summary judgment (except for cross-motions)

May 30, 2008

June 16, 2008

It is so ORDERED.
